Law Teacher Urges They Go to Polls and Defeat Bosses.

Cohaian will be reelected by an overwhelming majority.

"The bosses are groggy, but they have not yet been knocked out. The voters have it in their power to do it. If the intelligent citizenry of this county will see to it that they and their friends do their civic duty this week and go to the polls on election day we will have a more wholesome community. Murphy and Koenig have had ample time to reply to charges hurled at them by some of the most prominent members of the two dominant parties on Friday night, when the opening guns of the Cohalan campaign were fired. They have remained silent. Their silence is an eloquent confession of their guilt. Murphy and Koenig must know that every man, woman and child who can read is perfectly estisfied that the two bosses are ground by one of the foremost Republicans in the community. Henry A. Wise, that Sam Koenig entered into the deal solely to get the Tanumany nomination for Judge of the General Sesions for his Brother Morris, and that Murphy bore Cohalan."

"The Democrate, as said, are better organized this year than for a long time. Mr. Neely will have the full support of the regular organization vote. Further than that he has been assured of financial and moral support of the most powerful coal corporations in the State. The labor vote will probably be distributed in accordance with individual preferences. While neither Senate candidate is claimed to be an ardent champion of labor, a large percentage of the trades union men will probably favor Mr. Neely on the ground that Murphy bore Cohalan."

A conflict of views regarding the solder bonus will likewise help Mr. Neely. The soldler element demanding the bonus biames Mr. Sutherland's party has not granted the concessions demanded by voters of this class.

The Rev. Dr. Maurice H. Harris, rabbl of Temple Israel in Harlem and president of the New York Board of Jewish Ministers, in an open letter addewish Ministers, in an open letter ad-dressed to the public yesterday con-demned Murphy and Koenig for turning down Surrogate Cohalan. He wrote; "Not all realize the tremendous power placed in the hands of a judge that largely decides the happiness and des-tiny of many men and women. En-tirely indifferent to political affiliation

"But there is an additional reason why I take this occasion to indorse the renomination of Judge Cohelas. It has become an unwritten law of all parties, in this city to unite in renominating any judge who during his years of service has shown a worthy record. Yet, for reasons partisas and scandalous, into which I will not enter, the leaders of both factions have agreed to discredit Judge Cohalan and to fall back upon the unfortunate method of judicial nomina-

But little popular interest in the con-troversy over the right of the Michigan Senator to his seat. Because Mr. Sutherland did oppose the seating of Mr. Newberry the Democrats are not inclined to waste any words over the matter.

The most definite impression that an inquisitive reporter forms after discussing the West Virginia situation with the experts of both sides is that which I will not enter, the leaders of both factions have agreed to discredit Judge Cohalan and to fall back upon the unfortunate method of judicial nomination entirely in the interests of political exigency. It is outrageous that to eatlary a private grudge of an individual the brutality in private grudge of an individual the brutality in the interests of the citizens should be brutally thrust aside.
